MERCHANTS TO HOLD DRAWING

Announce Immense Prize Awards for Holidays Similar to That of Centennial Week

PLAN IS CHANGED SLIGHTLY

Any Member of a Household May Claim Gift Within Ten Minutes After it is Drawn

It was announced today that Rushville merchants would hold another drawing before Christmas, similar to the one which was tried for the first time here Centennial week, the second week of October.

Identically the same plan will be followed, with one exception—that the winner of any article does not have to claim it within ten minutes after it is drawn. Any member of the family of the winner may claim the article within ten minutes after it is drawn.

The definite time for the registration to begin will be announced later this week, but it will not be later than Saturday morning. It will be possible to register as late as Monday evening December 18, up to the time the stores close, and the drawing will take place Tuesday morning, December 19 at ten o'clock on the steps at the north entrance to the court house.

There will be one other difference too, because there is a limit to the value of the gift offered by the merchant. This time, it is assured no merchant will offer anything worth more than five dollars. The first time there were no restrictions of this sort and the prizes varied greatly in value.

A canvass of the merchants was being made today for the purpose of ascertaining just what business men would participate in the prize offer this time. It will be known within two or three days what merchants will take part and their names and the list of gifts they will present to the lucky persons will be published.

The method of claiming the prizes was changed so as to protect factory men and other laborers who would be unable to be present at the drawing. The person who claims the prize may not of necessity be of the immediate family of the winner—the only requirement being that they must live in the same house. There are cases, it is shown, where boarding house keepers might want to claim prizes for some of their boarders.

The registration will be by the same method. Each store offering a prize will have a sealed box and each person wishing a chance on that store's gift must write his or her name and address on a slip of paper and drop it in the box.

If there are any merchants who want to join the project and were missed in the canvass today, they are urged to call telephone 2106 and report the fact.

GRAND JURY AT IT AGAIN

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Ind., Dec. 5.—The federal grand jury investigating alleged election frauds in Indiana today resumed its work after a recess over Thanksgiving. The jury today expected to examine witnesses from Marion county and there was some indication that not only the recent election but the alleged frauds of 1914 would again be taken up.

1,030 DIDN'T PAY POLL TAX

Figures With Semi-Annual Distribution Reveal This Fact

The percentage of voters paying poll tax in Rush county is small, according to figures submitted with the semi-annual distribution of funds in the auditor's office. The tax duplicate contains the names of 3,547 men who should pay poll tax and for the tax paying season ending Nov. 6 a total of 2,517 paid the tax, leaving 1,030, who failed to pay. Officials state this is not higher than usual. They also point out that at a dollar a head, the 1,030 unpaid polls would go a long way towards building a bridge or help in keeping up the road repairs.

ASSERTS HUSBAND OFTEN CHOKED HER

Ruth Ryon Brings Suit for Divorce From Elmer Ryon, Also Alleging he Kicked Her

ASKS FOR CHILD'S CUSTODY

Ruth Ryon has filed suit for divorce against Elmer Ryon, alleging cruel and inhuman treatment. Mrs. Ryon is not of age and the suit was brought by her mother, Mrs. Jennie Beaver, as her next friend. The complaint states that he frequently cursed, choked and kicked her and threatened to kill her. According to the complaint, they were married September 6, 1914 and separated November 26, 1916.

She states that on Nov. 26 he struck her and his treatment became so bad that she was forced to leave their home. They are residents of Richland township. Mrs. Ryon asks for the custody of their one child and alimony in the sum of $100. A. L. Gary represents Mrs. Ryon.

W. P. TALLEY GETS 90 DAYS AT PENAL FARM

Is Fined For Three Offenses by Mayor Beabout This Afternoon—Arrested by Sheriff

CAUSES TROUBLE NEAR HOMER

William P. Talley of near Homer drew a total of 90 days at the penal farm this afternoon when he was fined on three charges by Mayor Beabout in police court. Talley first received one dollar and costs for public intoxication; then $5 and costs and sixty days for assault and battery on Jerry W. Jamison and to top off this received another $1 and costs for assault on his wife, Mrs. Mary E. Talley.

The Talleys have been keeping house for Mr. Jamieson, near Homer. Talley came home from Shelbyville last evening in a very bad disposition and incidentally pretty full of booze. He proceeded to "beat up on" Jamison and then ran his wife and children from the house. A call was sent to Sheriff Cavitt and he and Deputy Sheriff Sullivan made the run to Homer and arrested Talley. The case was turned over to the city authorities.

Talley had no money and will be compelled to "lay out" the costs in each case, bringing the total number of days up to 90.

The bazaar and social to be given by the Glenwood C. W. B. M. Thursday afternoon and night in Osborne's hall in Glenwood promises to be a unique affair. Garments of all kinds will be sold and wholesome food will be served.

NURSE FUND IS ON SOUND BASIS

Women's Council Plans to Have Money Coming in All the Time to Support Work

REPORTS GIVEN AT MEETING

Other Projects are Discussed, Including Clean-up Week and Community Gathering

Many phases of civic improvement were discussed by the members of the Women's Council who met at the Rushville National Bank last evening in one of the most enthusiastic meetings the organization has ever held. Now that the visiting nurse movement is a permanent one, the members of the council are directing their interest toward other worthwhile enterprises as well.

Rather indefinite plans were made for a "clean up" week to be conducted in the spring and to be preceded by a community meeting at which reports of the visiting nurse work will be given and suggestions for its betterment accepted from the citizens. Different phases of social welfare will be brought up at this city convention. The success of the "clean up" week is practically guaranteed, judging from its success in surrounding towns.

By excellent management on the part of the council, the visiting nurse fund is on a better financial basis now than ever before. The plan of the council is to have money coming in steadily for the support of the nurse and to conduct a consistent campaign rather than one at any particular season of the year.

Several factors have entered in aiding the treasury for the nurse fund. The Metropolitan Life Insurance company, which heretofore has hired a nurse for visiting its ill policy holders, has consented to combine and now has Miss Straight make their calls. The revenue for these calls goes directly into the visiting nurse fund.

At the meeting last evening, a report of $90 of the $100 pledge made by Psi Iota Xi being handed in was given. The result of the Red Cross seal sale is also expected to add at least one month's salary to the nurse fund. About $40 will be given by the members of the Thimble Club as a result of this undertaking Saturday; and one-half of the Thanksgiving offering went to the nurse fund.

The people of Rushville are responding readily to the call for this worthy enterprise and they are urged to continue to do so.

Miss Straight, the new visiting nurse, gave a report last evening of her work while here. In her short talk, she also compared the conditions here to those in the east where she has been engaged in similar work. A report of the last month of Miss Roser's work was also given. Miss Straight's work has been highly complimented here and she is proving to be very efficient.

It was decided at the meeting last evening to publish reports of the nurse work, semi-annually in January and June. At these times, the number of calls will be shown, the financial standing of the fund and the expenses stated. In the absence of Mrs. A. G. Reeves, Mrs. A. L. Stewart presided at the meeting last evening.

YEGGS VISIT BUNKERHILL

(By United Press.) Kokomo, Ind., Dec. 5.—Yeggmen swooped down on the small town of Bunkerhill in Miami county, near here, last night and made a clean getaway with currency and merchandise aggregating several hundred dollars. Taking advantage of a severe storm the yeggmen forced entrance into several places and blew the safe in every store they entered.

TOOK PLACE AS FARM LABORER

Amanda E. Birt Testified She Helped With Plowing, Wheat Cutting and Drove Team

TRYING TO GET A DIVORCE

Hugh S. Birt Contested Suit and Claim for $3,000 Alimony, Trying to Get Decree Himself

The divorce suit of Mrs. Amanda E. Birt against Hugh S. Birt occupied the attention of circuit court today. The Birts live a short distance north of Arlington and the trial brought a large crowd of Arlington and Posey township people here both as witnesses and spectators.

The case required all day to hear and Judge Sparks took it under advisement. The suit was hard fought, Mr. Birt opposing the divorce and seeking the decree on his cross-complaint. Mrs. Birt alleged cruel and inhuman treatment and on witness stand told of times when he had cursed her and related one instance in which she claimed he had knocked her down. Mrs. Birt told of another fight in which he hit her with a broom.

On cross-examination Mrs. Birt admitted that every time he called her a vulgar name she called him one. Mrs. Birt stated that she had always helped with the farm work and had taken her place in the field along with the men and helped with the plowing and wheat cutting, and said that she even drove the team to the roller.

This was the second marriage for both of the parties and both had children by the former marriage. The children were all placed together in the Birt home. Mrs. Birt claiming that he mistreated her children and took the part of his own when any trouble arose.

In his cross-complaint Mr. Birt alleged that she was intimate with her divorced husband, Charles Henby, and the complaint stated that he had reason to believe they would re-marry. The children and many neighbors were witnesses. Many testified that Birt was sullen around the house and did not talk a great deal, but seemed to peat over little things.

Mrs. Birt asks alimony in the sum of $3,000 and considerable time was taken up enumerating the different things of value owned by Mr. Birt. The value of the corn, hogs, horses and the Birt land was determined by several witnesses. Kiplinger and Smith appeared for Mrs. Birt and John A. Titworth for Mr. Birt.

The Newcastle Casket Company was given a judgment for $169.32 against Edward D. Lewis. The suit was on an account and the defendant allowed the judgment to be taken by default.

The court heard the suit on a note of Alvah Junken against U. G. Beaver and found for the plaintiff in the sum of $1,506.65 and attorney fees in the sum of $75. The original demand was $1,800.

The measles epidemic has hit New Salem. Over thirty cases were reported today. This town had escaped the epidemic until this week. The school was closed a week ago after so many pupils had taken the disease that it was next to impossible to hold classes.

WILSON RENEWS HIS REQUESTS

Appearing Before Congress Today, President Asks Increase in Commerce Commission

TO SETTLE RAIL DISPUTE

Recalls What he Recommended to Last Congress and What Was Done—Other Problems

By ROBERT J. BENDER
(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

Washington, Dec. 5.—Following the precedent he established when he first assumed his executive duties in the white house, President Wilson today appeared before a joint session of Congress and personally outlined legislation he hopes to have enacted by that body. It was the third time he has addressed the sixty-fourth Congress.

The president declared that the country "can not and should not consent to remain any longer exposed to profound industrial disturbances," and appealed for renewed action on his program of "settlement and regulation of difficulties" between the railroads and the trainmen.

Statements of the needs of such legislation occupied the bulk of his annual message—the shortest one he has delivered. It recommended passage of the provisions included but not acted upon in his last special appeal last August.

In a late addition to his message the president urged the passage by the house of the vocational and industrial educational measures passed by the senate during the last session.

Because the makeup of the next House may result in hard sledding for democratic measures, the president hoped, by his appeal today, to convince this congress of the importance of immediate action on legislation he particularly desires.

The executive box in the house gallery was reserved for Mrs. Wilson and other members of the president's family. Members of the cabinet, also were there.

While congress is working on his recommendations the president will be away from Washington but little. Should it be necessary he may recommend that the customary Christmas recess be dispensed with. This suggestion has been made already by Speaker Clark and Chairman Fitzgerald of the house appropriations committee.

There is much to do before March 3, the date of adjournment, if the president's wishes are to be carried out in full at this time and not entrusted to the sixty-fifth Congress.

"In the first place," said the president, launching into the principal theme of his address at once, "it seems to me imperatively necessary that the earliest possible consideration and action should be accorded the remaining measures of the programme of settlement and regulation which I had occasion to recommend to you at the close of your last session in view of the public dangers disclosed by the unaccommodated difficulties which then existed, and which still unhappily continue to exist, between the railroads of the country and their locomotive engineers, conductors, and trainmen."

"I then recommended:

"First, immediate provision for the enlargement and administrative reorganization of the Interstate Commerce Commission along the lines embodied in the bill recently passed by the House of Representatives and now awaiting action by the Senate; in order that the Commission may be enabled to deal with the many great and various duties now devolving upon it with a promptness and thoroughness which are, with its present constitution

INDICATES THAT AMERICANS ARE SAFE

The petition will virtually charge Mexican government officials with withholding or attempting to suppress information concerning the safety of foreigners.

The first authentic news from the Americans in Chihuahua City reached relatives today. A telegram from Charles Elmendorf, an American rumored at various times as killed said: "We are all well." By officials it was taken to mean that all Americans in Chihuahua City are safe.

Posterity's Debts

In all large public undertakings where permanent improvements were sought to be made it has become a custom to issue long-time bonds in order to secure the money with which to finance the work.

Probably nine-tenths of the counties of nine-tenths of the states of the union are bonded to a greater or less extent, and scarcely a city or town of any importance in the land but carries its bonded debt that has gone to pay for public utilities.

But in many cases the advocates of the bond issue have had hard fights to carry their projects through. One of the most serious objections has always been from the man who "doesn't believe in saddling a debt on future generations."

Now let us see about this. Suppose, for instance, our county has no railroad. For generations our ancestors, and we ourselves, have

DRINK HOT WATER IF YOU DESIRE A ROSY COMPLEXION

Says we can't help but look better and feel better after an inside bath.

To look one's best and feel one's best is to enjoy an inside bath each morning to flush from the system the previous day's waste, sour fermentations and poisonous toxins before it is absorbed into the blood. Just as coal, when it burns, leaves behind a certain amount of incombustible material in the form of ashes, so the food and drink taken each day leave in the alimentary organs a certain amount of indigestible material, which if not eliminated, form toxins and poisons which are then sucked into the blood through the very ducts which are intended to suck in only nourishment to sustain the body.

If you want to see the glow of healthy bloom in your cheeks, you are told to drink every morning upon arising, a glass of hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it, which is a harmless means of washing the waste material and toxins from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels, thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary tract, before putting more food into the stomach.

Men and women with sallow skins, liver spots, pimples or pallid complexion, also those who wake up with a coated tongue, bad taste, nasty breath, others who are bothered with headaches, bilious spells, acid stomach or constipation should begin this phosphated hot water drinking and are assured of very pronounced results in one or two weeks.

A quarter pound of limestone phosphate costs very little at the drug store, but is sufficient to demonstrate that just as soap and hot water cleanses, purifies and refreshes the skin on the outside, so hot water and limestone phosphate act on the inside organs. We must always consider that internal sanitation is vastly more important than outside cleanliness, because the skin pores do not absorb impurities into the blood, while the bowel pores do.

laboriously hauled in our supplies and hauled out our products, realizing, when all expenses were met, but a meagre pittance for our year's work.

But a railroad is projected and we are told if we will bond our county for a few hundred thousand dollars, it will be put through. This we do. Now arises the objection that we have placed a heavy debt on posterity.

Have we?

Yes. But at the same time we have given posterity the means to pay that debt and then be infinitely better off than we and our fathers were.

Compare for a moment the difference in their conditions, and ours before the road was built. The average county is about twenty-five miles wide. Suppose that represented the distance to the nearest shipping point. Do you see the enormous saving we have effected for posterity in bringing the road to their doors?

Again, take the question of pikes. The same reasoning will hold good there. Whereas we and our fathers toiled through mud and mire to drag fifteen or twenty bushels of grain to market, our sons can hitch up an ordinary team and take a load of two or three thousand pounds with ease and in much less time than we needed.

And so on through the list of all permanent public improvements. But the work should be permanent, or at least as nearly permanent as our best judgment can make it. When we have builded to the best of our ability and have lain a groundwork on which our children can continue to build, we have not only benefited them, and made it possible to attain to conditions that were entirely beyond our reach.

A debt on posterity is just, provided it represents a tangible asset.

Federalized.

The State railroad and public service commissioners make a natural protest against any plan to federalize the regulation of common carriers. Some of them are actuated by fear of losing their jobs; others have pronounced the genuine notions of states' rights which they would maintain. The Republican platform of 1916 declared for federal control of the power of regulating transportation, but it was a subject which received little attention in the campaign. Whether the party in Congress will support the proposition with unanimity may be doubted. There are, however, some court decisions already on record—one, notably, in Alabama—where the doctrine of the right of the Interstate Commerce Commission to regulate both interstate and intrastate rates has been affirmed. In the Alabama case the doctrine went all the way through to the court of last resort without reversal. It may be, therefore, that all the Interstate Commerce Commission has to do is to assume the power without waiting for Congressional action.

An excellent way to get rid of a grouch is to forget that you have one.

No wonder men of today are becoming stoop shouldered. The hosiery display keeps very male eye on a downward slant.

If the high cost of white paper interferes, love letters can be just as silly on any other color.

By keeping everlastingly at it some people eventually never get anywhere.

"Second, the establishment of an eight-hour day as the legal basis alike of work and of wages in the employment of all railway employees who are actually engaged in the work of operating trains in interstate transportation.

"Third, the authorization of the appointment by the President of a small body of men to observe the actual results in experience of the adoption of the eight-hour days in railway transportation alike for the men and for the railroads.

"Fourth, explicit approval by the Congress of the consideration by the Interstate Commerce Commission of an increase of freight rates to meet such additional expenditures by the railroads as may have been rendered necessary by the adoption of the eight-hour day and which have not been offset by administrative readjustments and economies, should the facts disclosed justify the increase.

"Fifth, an amendment of the existing federal statute which provides for the mediation, conciliation, and arbitration of such controversies as the present by adding to it a provision that, in case the methods of accommodation now provided for should fail, a full public investigation of the merits of every such dispute shall be instituted and completed before a strike or lockout may lawfully be attempted.

"And, sixth, the lodgement in the hands of the Executive of the power—one, notably, in Alabama—where the doctrine of the right of the Interstate Commerce Commission to regulate both interstate and intrastate rates has been affirmed. In the Alabama case the doctrine went all the way through to the court of last resort without reversal. It may be, therefore, that all the Interstate Commerce Commission has to do is to assume the power without waiting for Congressional action.

Muncie Woman Describes the Good Work of Tanlac—Terms it Wonderful

Muncie, Ind., Dec. 4.—Mrs. Lovina Rickert, a well known resident of this city, who lives at 1503 A street, Whitley is one of the hundreds of friends Tanlac, the Master Medicine, has made among residents of Muncie and vicinity. Mrs. Rickert said:

"For some time I have had stomach and kidney troubles and rheumatism. I was subject to severe headaches and frequently I became dizzy. Rheumatic pains in my shoulders bothered me. My chest was sore. I had a bad taste in my mouth. Gas formed on my stomach.

"I get up in the mornings feeling rested and refreshed since taking Tanlac. My food digests properly now. The pains in my shoulders have disappeared. The work of Tanlac in my case has been wonderful."

Tanlac, the Master Medicine, is especially beneficial for stomach, liver and kidney trouble, catarrhal complaints, rheumatism, nervousness and the like and is fine for relieving the after effects of hard coughs, colds, lagriple, pneumonia and the like. Tanlac is now sold exclusively in Rushville at F. E. Woleott's drug store; in Arlington at Mrs. L. T. Davis's; in Carthage at J. H. McCarthy & Sons, and in Milroy at Barton & Sheppard's. (Adv.)

MONTHLY REPORT IS MADE

Finance Board Meets on January 1 to Receive Proposals From Financial Institution

The treasurer of Rush county had on deposit in the various banks over one-half million dollars for several days during the month of November. At one time the deposits amounted to $526,449.04. This was immediately following the close of the tax paying season on Nov. 16. It was probably the first time in the history of the county that the sum on deposit reached this large amount.

At the close of business November 30 the county had on deposit the sum of $428,229.59. During the month the sum of $98,219.46 was paid out, showing that the total deposits were over the half million mark.

The sum on hand even after paying out almost $100,000 was still large, but will be greatly reduced during this month as the settlement with the state and the distribution to the corporations and townships will come out of this large total.

The board of finance will meet on January 1 to receive proposals from the banks and trust companies on the amount of public funds they are entitled to for the next two years. The public depositories are given a per cent of the funds based on the capital stock, the surplus and the undivided profits of the banks. The amounts the banks will be entitled to for the next two years will not vary greatly from that followed at present.

The amount on deposit in the various banks and trust companies in the county at the close of business Nov. 30 was as follows:

Rush Co. National	$100,414.90
Rushville National	73,813.98
Peoples National	65,477.98
Peoples Loan & Trust	22,840.30

Mays bank	14,998.85
Glenwood bank	13,689.49
Falmouth bank	6,807.55

Total $428,229.58

The interest received from these deposits amounted to $734.85 and was received as follows from the banks and trust companies:

At the home of Miss Lucy Inlow in North Perkins street, a pleasant company of friends had a pitch-in supper last evening. The bountiful meal was enjoyed by Mr. and Mrs. Willard Amos, Miss Mary Amos, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Winship, Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Harton, Will Inlow and Mrs. Emma Talbot.

At the hospitable country home of Miss Grace and Frank Buell northeast of the city, the members of the Evening Card Club had a pleasant meeting last evening. Games of "500" entertained the guests during the evening at the conclusion of which an elegant one course luncheon was served. Plans were made for having a pitch-in turkey dinner on New Years evening for the members of the club.

At the meeting of the Coterie Club held yesterday afternoon with Mrs. H. H. Elliott at her home in North Harrison street, an interesting account of a "Trip to the Yosemite Valley" was given in a paper by the hostess. It was very instructive as well as interesting. A short business session convened and the hostess served delicious refreshments. About a dozen club members were present. The next meeting of the club will be with Mrs. C. M. George.

Miss Magdaline Arbuckle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Arbuckle entertained the members of her class of the St. Paul's M. E. Sunday school at her home in West Seventh street last evening. A short business meeting was conducted after which the girls spent the evening playing games, and enjoying music. Miss Joan Weakley gave several clever readings. About 14 members of the class attended the delightful meeting at the close of which dainty refreshments were served.

And for the traveler, Santa Claus

Miss Anna Geraghty entertained her twelve nieces at a theatre party last evening. After attending the "movie" the party visited the candy kitchen.

Two very interesting papers featured the meeting of the Monday Circle held with Mrs. Ralph Payne at her home in North Harrison street yesterday afternoon. Mrs. B. F. Miller, in her paper, discussed in a very inclusive way "Shakespeare's Debt to the Bible." Mrs. L. L. Allen brought out in her paper "The Greatness of Shakespeare," dealing with the many factors that make him really great. Dainty refreshments were served by the hostess. Mrs. Leroy Churchill of Buffalo, N. Y., was among the guests of Mrs. Payne.

Twenty-eight members of the W. R. C. Penny Social attended the Christmas meeting at the home of Mrs. Alfred Pearsey in East Tenth street yesterday afternoon when she was assisted in entertaining by Mrs. Minnie Moore and Mrs. Mary Wilson. With the national colors, the home was decorated. One of the cleverest features of the affair was the drawing of gifts. Each guest had brought one. The gifts were placed in a basket and a string attached to each. After the basket was covered, each guest drew a string and received the present. A two course luncheon was served late in the afternoon. During the business meeting, officers for the coming year were elected with the following result: president, Mrs. Noley Newkirk; vice-president, Mrs. Lydia Turner; treasurer, Mrs. Eva Offutt. The next meeting of the Social will be December 19th at the home of Mrs. Mary R. Gregg when she will be assisted by Mrs. Fannie Ridenbaugh and Mrs. Selma Webb.

Miss Beulah Murphy will be assisted by Mrs. Fannie Ridenbaugh and Mrs. Selma Webb.

IT SHOULD BE NO TROUBLE TO PICK "HER" CHRISTMAS GIFT

A Survey of Rushville Stores Reveals That Mere Man Even Could Select Suitable Present For His Wife or Sweetheart Without Any Fuss or Confusion Because There Are so Many Suitable Things Which Would Make Her Happy—There Are Vases And Bags And Toilet Sets And Luncheon Sets And Many Other Dainty Things Too Numerous to Mention.

If this "Christmasy" figure fails to convince you that gift-giving day is quickly approaching, a mere glimpse in the down-town shops will do so. It seems that the assortment was never larger and the gifts more attractively arranged than this year. True, some of the gifts disregard the principles of the S. P. U. G. but by their daintiness they offer their own excuse.

Every idea under the sun has been worked into some new form of a Christmas present, for as usual, the buyer is seeking "something pretty and yet very different." Baskets! There are all sorts, and they are for all purposes. The newest sandwich baskets are the ones that have lids fitting tightly down, and a ring on top that serves as a handle. The French basket is neglected this year for the lovely white ivory ones for the flower pot or bouquet. Twined about on them are raised pink or other daintily colored flowers. Similar baskets may be found in gold and other shades. Even the waste paper baskets are made to correspond with the white ivory or wicker furniture in the bed room.

Both the bud vases and very practical flat bowls for Japanese gardens have won their popularity for the flower loving hostess, but now they are coming in sets. The popular black ones, different shades of blue, black and white and glass are all being shown. Too, there are the cunning little birds that perch on the bowls and ornaments to float about amid the flowers. The tapering bud vases are shown in filigree silver, in ivory to match the dresser or desk set and in sterling.

was never more considerate. Glass drinking cups are neatly enclosed in leather cases of bright colors; playing cards with scores and pencils are done up in leather cases; light weight clothes hangers can be folded into a small package in a pretty black leather case; and the necessities for a good smoke are in another shaped case. Of course, too, there are the sets of toilet articles for the traveler.

And bags! Milady's Christmas will not be complete without at least several of the pretty new bags. There are the velvet and silk ones, beaded and embroidered ones, small and large, but all quite useful, for, considering their size, the capacity is almost unlimited. Practically all of them are quite round, and some of the less elaborate ones are being carried as pocket books. Of course, too, there are the fluffy and frilly ribbon sewing bags of every shape and shade. And speaking of ribbon, it is certainly at its best this year. Bein an endless profusion. Every kind almost for men, women and children. Why not make your selections now? If you want initial handkerchiefs, choose now before the assortment is broken.

THE MAUZY CO.

cause it has been created in such bright colors and gay designs, as well as the soft delicate shades, it is being used for innumerable purposes. Hangers are covered with it, slippers are made of it, negligee caps are formed with it and even camisoles are being made out of the wide kaiser silk ribbon made for that purpose.

The gift suggestions for the tiny tads are just as irresistible as ever. The toilet sets for the youngsters are in ivory, pale blue or pink, and arranged in a pretty box. There are soft woolly bathrobes for even the tiniest, and there are pretty sets consisting of sweaters, caps and bootees to match.

Speaking of "sets," everything is now being put up in sets. They are nice to give and certainly much nicer to receive. The towel sets have wash cloths to match; the new collars of wool and flannel have wide cuffs to correspond; the luncheon sets are in madeira, embroidery of all kinds and the cheaper ones, none the less attractive, however, for informal luncheon, are in the Japanese linen with bright blue figures; the short hat pins come in sets; and even toilet articles of the same brand and being put up in pretty boxes, containing powder, soap, perfume and sometimes, tooth paste.

The stationers seem to have forgotten the high price of paper in making the elaborate boxes for the stationery. It, too, is being put up in sets of different sizes, and the more ideal boxes for gifts are those with an appropriate little picture or greeting.

There is a motto for everyone or every wish. Some of the prettier ones are framed and bear a conventional design beside the individual motto. There really aren't so many calendars as usual, for their place as a greeting is being taken by the lovely Christmas cards. These are made into very elaborate form. Some are transformed into books containing powder papers for milady; others are hand-painted handkerchief cases; others contain tiny clothespins for the traveler; some have sewing kits and others are for pins. All these conveniences are concealed beneath the Christmas greeting itself.

URGES FARMERS TO FIX PRICES

Speaker at Marketing Conference Declares They Should Have Rights of Manufacturer.

HE CITES FRUIT GROWERS

Needs of an Association Are Shown Through Which They Would be Protected.

(By United Press.)

Chicago, Ill., Dec. 5.—The farmer, like the manufacturer, should fix the price of his product, in the opinion of G. E. Prater, Jr., of Paw Paw, Mich., sales manager of the Wolverine Co-operative Company, who addressed the Conference on Marketing here today.

The Wolverine company is an association of Michigan grape growers and is said to have done much to improve conditions among the said that the fruit growers were vineyards of that state, but Prater still much at the mercy of the consignee.

"The fruit growers of Michigan are still facing the problem of continuing the old method of consigning their fruit, thereby letting the other fellow set the price, or associating themselves, either together as an association, or interesting cash buyers in their product," said the Michigan expert.

"The individual association cannot afford to maintain an efficient market organization by reason of the limited amount of business transacted and the short time its products are on the market," he continued. Hence Michigan's great need of today is a federation of all associated interests whereby there will be a selling center, from which the entire season's product of the state may be distributed, or at least provide a source of information to the buyer, where any given product may be obtained, from some dependable shipper.

"What we must have is a system that will guarantee the buyer a definite and dependable grade that will be the same whether shipped from Traverse City, Benton Harbor or points between. Then our product will have a definite commercial value on the market, and can be sold f. o. b. and traded in with confidence."

MAY DO AWAY WITH ADVISORY BOARD

Trustees at Their Annual Meeting May Recommend Legislation Abolishing These Officers.

SESSION OPENED TODAY

Indianapolis, Ind., Dec. 5—Township trustees from over Indiana came here today to attend the annual convention of the Indiana Trustees association. The convention will be in session until tomorrow night. Elimination of advisory boards in the state will be the main topic of discussion. It is understood that resolution will be introduced into the coming session of the General Assembly abolishing the advisory board system. This action, it is said, will be taken because every time the trustees need money in their work, it is necessary to take up the matter with the advisory board, causing much delay. Every township in the state has an advisory board consisting of three men.

Dr. W. F. King, assistant secretary of the state board of health will deliver an address on the "The Duty of the Trustee to the Schools." W. D. Carter, of Delaware county, is president of the association.

Notice of Election.

On Tuesday, January 9th, 1917, a meeting of the shareholders of The Peoples Loan and Trust Company of Rushville, Indiana, will be held at their offices, between the hours of 8:00 a. m. and 4:00 p. m., to elect seven Directors to serve the ensuing year.

Mayors of Many Cities Take up Fight to Lower Prices, Especially of Coal

MARKETS ARE SUCCESSFUL

Evansville's Mayor in Chicago to Buy Cabbage and Potatoes in Car Load Lots.

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Ind.—With the introduction of a resolution in the Indianapolis council today by Alderman Frank Graham, asking for an investigation into the high price of foodstuffs, practically every large city in Indiana has now taken up the fight against the high cost of living.

Mayor Gossom of Terre Haute started the ball rolling with the establishment of his municipal coal mine. The Terre Haute mayor's project has proved so successful that he has leased fifty acres of coal land, in addition to the mine now working and the market promises to be a permanent institution.

Muncie was next in line when the common council of that city appropriated $15,000 for the establishment of a municipal coal bin.

Mayor Benjamin Bosse of Evansville today is in Chicago arranging to purchase cabbage and potatoes in car load lots to be sold to Evansville consumers at cost. He has issued warning to coal dealers that if the price goes above 12 cents a bushel, he will start a municipal coal mine.

Mayor William C. Murphy and members of the common council of Crawfordsville are arranging to purchase 1,000 tons of coal which they plan to sell to consumers at $3 a ton.

It is possible that a meeting of mayors of Indiana cities may be held within a short time to devise plans on a wide scale for the establishment of municipal food and fuel markets.

IN INDIANA TODAY

Columbus—A farmers' institute was held at Hartsville today.

Bedford—Thirty-five thousand dollars left by Moses Fell Dunn in his will to be devoted to the erection of a soldiers monument will probably be used to construct a building instead of the monument.

Evansville—Girls employed in the Evansville Cigar shops are being taken into the union, as a result of a recent visit of a national organizer, who asked a membership of women.

Huntington—School children are refraining from marking with chalk on the side walks by orders of Police Chief Baker. The order came as a result of complaints lodged by residents here.

SAGE TEA TURNS GRAY HAIR DARK

It's Grandmother's Recipe to Bring Back Color and Lustre to Hair.

That beautiful, even shade of dark, glossy hair can only be had by brewing a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray or streaked, just an application or two of Sage and Sulphur enhances its appearance hundredfold.

Don't bother to prepare the mixture; you can get this famous old recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients for 50 cents a large bottle, all ready for use. It is called Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound. This can always be depended upon to bring back the natural color and lustre of your hair.

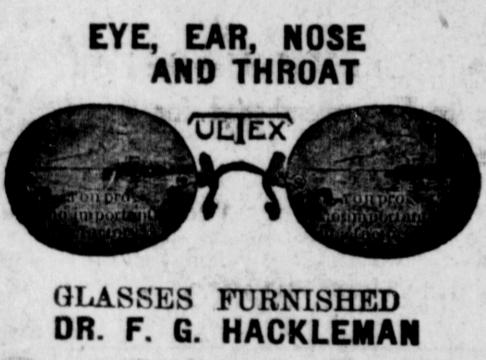

Everybody uses "Wyeth's" Sage and Sulphur Compound now because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair has disappeared, and after another application it becomes beautifully dark and appears glossy and lustrous. This ready-to-use preparation is a delightful toilet requisite for those who desire dark hair and a youthful appearance. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

I want this plainly understood—
They don't say "this is just as good!"

ONE thing that Pa Provider likes about this store is that when you ask for anything they don't come back at you with "Madam, here is something just as good." They fill your order properly at prices that will please you as greatly as their high grade foods do.

Youthful Friendship.

Although many people smile cynically when platonic friendship is mentioned, I, for one, believe there is a true form of it among young people. As far back as I can remember I have enjoyed the friendship of boy companions and this friendship has always been purely impersonal.

As a little child I played with my brother George's friends. We would have plays, Indian raids, cowboy games, and every other sort of amusement which children love so well. Of course I was always the squaw, cowgirl, wife, dancer at the circus, or some other rather tame thing. For the little fellows didn't believe me quite capable of straddling clothes horses, climbing trees and running from the enemy.

As I grew older these same wholesome comrades shared my joys and sorrows. Always my champions, no other boy in the school-yard ever dared tease me. How well I remember one day that I went to school with a new dark red dress. The "bad boy" of the class told me that the bull I had to pass in the fields on my way home would surely spot that dress and go after me. I couldn't attend to my studies, I was so worried; and by the time recess came round I was in tears. My brother's particular chum, Harry, noticed my tear-filled eyes as I passed him in the yard, and he asked me to come over a minute. Before I knew it I was crying hysterically, and as much as I dislike being a tattle tale, I told him the whole story.

He reassured me, telling me he would take me home another way; and it was not long before a fist fight between two boys ensued in which Harry was victor.

Thus, friends, it has been the same way all through my life. To this day the boys come and spend a quiet evening with mother and me, even when George is away from home at military school. They never think of me as their "sweetheart," and a beau remains as far from my thoughts as ever.

Encourage youthful friendships, dear friends. A boy's comradeship that has not lapsed into a sentimental mood is one of the most priceless and admirable things one can desire. It is a privilege worth owning.

GERARD SAILS FOR GERMANY

Carries With Him This Government's Attitude on all Questions Now Pending.

Expresses Belief That Belligerent Countries Will Buy in Their Own Countries.

New York, Dec. 5.—Ambassador James W. Gerard today sailed on the steamer Frederick VIII, to resume his duties at Berlin, leaving President Wilson determined to pursue the same course as in the past toward Germany.

The Ambassador carried with him a clear summary of this government's attitude on all questions now pending between Germany and the United States, gained in conference with the President in the first talks he has had with the President since the war began.

While here the ambassador assured those with whom he talked that the danger of certain radical elements in the empire overthrowing the influence of the German government was trifling.

Before sailing Gerard expressed the belief that many of the belliger-

MERCHANTS TO HOLD DRAWING

Announce Immense Prize Awards for Holidays Similar to That of Centennial Week

PLAN IS CHANGED SLIGHTLY

Any Member of a Household May Claim Gift Within Ten Minutes After It is Drawn

It was announced today that Rushville merchants would hold another drawing before Christmas, similar to the one which was tried for the first time here Centennial week, the second week of October.

Identically the same plan will be followed, with one exception—that the winner of any article does not have to claim it within ten minutes after it is drawn. Any member of the family of the winner may claim the article within ten minutes after it is drawn.

The definite time for the registration to begin will be announced later this week, but it will not be later than Saturday morning. It will be possible to register as late as Monday evening December 18, up to the time the stores close, and the drawing will take place Tuesday morning, December 19 at ten o'clock on the steps at the north entrance to the court house.

There will be one other difference too, because there is a limit to the value of the gift offered by the merchant. This time, it is assured no merchant will offer anything worth more than five dollars. The first time there were no restrictions of this sort and the prizes varied greatly in value.

A canvass of the merchants was being made today for the purpose of ascertaining just what business men would participate in the prize offer this time. It will be known within two or three days what merchants will take part and their names and the list of gifts they will present to the lucky persons will be published.

The method of claiming the prizes was changed so as to protect factory men and other laborers who would be unable to be present at the drawing. The person who claims the prize may not of necessity be of the immediate family of the winner—the only requirement being that they must live in the same house. There are cases, it is shown, where boarding house keepers might want to claim prizes for some of their boarders.

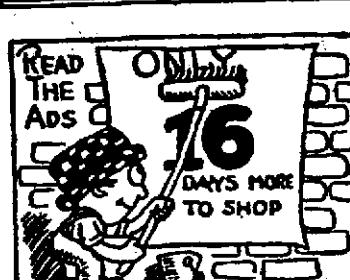

The registration will be by the same method. Each store offering a prize will have a sealed box and each person wishing a chance on that store's gift must write his or her name and address on a slip of paper and drop it in the box.

If there are any merchants who want to join the project and were missed in the canvass today, they are urged to call telephone 2106 and report the fact.

GRAND JURY AT IT AGAIN

(By United Press)

Indianapolis, Ind., Dec. 5.—The federal grand jury investigating alleged election frauds in Indiana today resumed its work after a recess over Thanksgiving. The jury today expected to examine witnesses from Marion county and there was some indication that not only the recent election but the alleged frauds of 1914 would again be taken up.

1,030 DIDN'T PAY POLL TAX

Figures With Semi-Annual Distribution Reveal This Fact

The percentage of voters paying poll tax in Rush county is small, according to figures submitted with the semi-annual distribution of funds in the auditor's office. The tax duplicate contains the names of 3,547 men who should pay poll tax and for the tax paying season ending Nov. 6 a total of 2,517 paid the tax, leaving 1,030, who failed to pay. Officials state this is not higher than usual. They also point out that at a dollar a head, the 1,030 unpaid polls would go a long way towards building a bridge or help in keeping up the road repairs.

W. P. TALLEY GETS 90 DAYS AT PENAL FARM

Is Fined For Three Offenses by Mayor Beabout This Afternoon—Arrested by Sheriff

CAUSES TROUBLE NEAR HOMER

William P. Talley of near Homer drew a total of 90 days at the penal farm this afternoon when he was fined on three charges by Mayor Beabout in police court. Talley first received one dollar and costs for public intoxication; then $5 and costs and sixty days for assault and battery on Jerry W. Jamison and to top this off received another $1 and costs for assault on his wife, Mrs. Mary E. Talley.

The Tallies have been keeping house for Mr. Jamison, near Homer. Talley came home from Shelbyville last evening in a very bad disposition and incidentally pretty full of booze. He proceeded to "beat up on" Jamison and then ran his wife and children from the house. A call was sent to Sheriff Cavitt and he and Deputy Sheriff Sullivan made the run to Homer and arrested Talley. The case was turned over to the city authorities.

Talley had no money and will be compelled to "lay out" the costs in each case, bringing the total number of days up to 90.

NURSE FUND IS ON SOUND BASIS

Women's Council Plans to Have Money Coming in All the Time to Support Work

REPORTS GIVEN AT MEETING

Other Projects are Discussed, Including Clean-up Week and Community Gathering

Many phases of civic improvement were discussed by the members of the Women's Council who met at the Rushville National Bank last evening in one of the most enthusiastic meetings the organization has ever held. Now that the visiting nurse movement is a permanent one, the members of the council are directing their interest toward other worthwhile enterprises as well.

Rather indefinite plans were made for a "clean up" week to be conducted in the spring and to be preceded by a community meeting at which reports of the visiting nurse work will be given and suggestions for its betterment accepted from the citizens. Different phases of social welfare will be brought up at this city convention. The success of the "clean up" week is practically guaranteed, judging from its success in surrounding towns.

By excellent management on the part of the council, the visiting nurse fund is on a better financial basis now than ever before. The plan of the council is to have money coming in steadily for the support of the nurse and to conduct a consistent campaign rather than one at any particular season of the year.

Several factors have entered in aiding the treasury for the nurse fund. The Metropolitan Life Insurance company, which heretofore has hired a nurse for visiting its ill policy holders, has consented to combine and now has Miss Straight make their calls. The revenue for these calls goes directly into the visiting nurse fund.

At the meeting last evening, a report of $90 of the $100 pledge made by Psi Iota Xi being handed in was given. The result of the Red Cross seal sale is also expected to add at least one month's salary to the nurse fund. About $40 will be given by the members of the Thimble Club as a result of this undertaking Saturday; and one-half of the Thanksgiving offering went to the nurse fund. The people of Rushville are responding readily to the call for this worthy enterprise and they are urged to continue to do so.

Miss Straight, the new visiting nurse, gave a report last evening of her work while here. In her short talk, she also compared the conditions here to those in the east where she has been engaged in similar work. A report of the last month of Miss Roser's work was also given. Miss Straight's work has been highly complimented here and she is proving to be very efficient.

It was decided at the meeting last evening to publish reports of the nurse work, semi-annually in January and June. At these times, the number of calls will be shown, the financial standing of the fund and the expenses stated. In the absence of Mrs. A. G. Reeves, Mrs. A. L. Stewart presided at the meeting last evening.

Taking advantage of a severe storm the yeggmen forced entrance into several places and blew the safe in every store they entered to Governor Halston.

TOOK PLACE AS FARM LABORER

Amanda E. Birt Testified She Helped With Plowing, Wheat Cutting and Drove Team

TRYING TO GET A DIVORCE

Hugh S. Birt Contested Suit and Claim for $3,000 Alimony, Trying to Get Decree Himself

The divorce suit of Mrs. Amanda E. Birt against Hugh S. Birt occupied the attention of circuit court today. The Birts live a short distance north of Arlington and the trial brought a large crowd of Arlington and Posey township people here both as spectators and spectators.

The case required all day to hear and Judge Sparks took it under advisement. The suit was hard fought, Mr. Birt opposing the divorce and seeking the decree on his cross-complaint. Mrs. Birt alleged cruel and inhuman treatment and on witness stand told of times when he had cursed her and related one instance in which she claimed he had knocked her down. Mrs. Birt told of another fight in which he hit her with a broom.

On cross-examination Mrs. Birt admitted that every time he cursed her she cursed him back and stated that every time he called her a vulgar name she called him one. Mrs. Birt stated that she had always helped with the farm work and had taken her place in the field along with the men and helped with the plowing and wheat cutting, and said that she even drove the team to the roller.

This was the second marriage for both of the parties and both had children by the former marriage. The children were all placed together in the Birt home. Mrs. Birt claiming that he mistreated her children and took the part of his own when any trouble arose.

In his cross-complaint Mr. Birt alleged that she was intimate with her divorced husband, Charles Henby, and the complaint stated that he had reason to believe they would re-marry. The children and many neighbors were witnesses. Many testified that Birt was sullen around the house and did not talk a great deal, but seemed to eat over little things.

Mrs. Birt asks alimony in the sum of $3,000 and considerable time was taken up enumerating the different things of value owned by Mr. Birt. The value of the corn, hogs, horses and the Birt land was determined by several witnesses. Kiplinger and Smith appeared for Mrs. Birt and John A. Titsworth for Mr. Birt.

The Newcastle Casket Company was given a judgment for $169.32 against Edward D. Lewis. The suit was on an account and the defendant allowed the judgment to be taken by default.

The court heard the suit on a note of Alvah Juiken against U. G. Beaver and found for the plaintiff in the sum of $1,506.65 and attorney fees in the sum of $75. The original demand was $1,800.

MRS. LEWIS LYTHE DIES IN CHICAGO

Young Mother Succumbs in Hospital Few Hours After Birth of a Baby Girl.

SEVERE SHOCK TO MOTHER

Mrs. Lena Lytle, 23 years old, wife of Lewis Lytle, died last evening in a Chicago hospital following the birth of a baby girl. The news of her death came as a shock to a large circle of friends here. Mrs. Lytle was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Kuntz of this city and Mrs. Kuntz suffered severely from the shock. For a time she was in a critical condition, but was somewhat improved today.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Moor left last night for Chicago, but no further word or details have been received. The child was born yesterday morning and the mother lived several hours. Yesterday afternoon word was received that she was in a critical condition and then came the word that she had died.

Mrs. Lytle was the youngest child of Mr. and Mrs. Kuntz. She has a sister, Mrs. Ethel Norris, living in Logansport. The funeral arrangements have not been made, but it is expected that the remains will arrive here in the morning.

ATTEMPT MADE TO HECKLE PRESIDENT

Suffragists Unfurled Yellow Banner With Inscription on it as Wilson Speaks Today.

IT IS PROMPTLY TORN DOWN

(By United Press)
 Washington, Dec. 5.—The first demonstration by suffragists such as "heckled" the British house of commons in the past appeared in congress today while President Wilson was delivering his annual message to a joint session of the house and senate.

Soon after the president started, the first yellow silk banner with black letters was unfurled in the house gallery by a group of suffrage sympathizers. It bore the inscription in black letters: "Mr. President, what will you do for woman suffrage?"

A page was dispatched to the gallery and tore down the banner. The president went on with the reading, apparently giving the banner no attention.

Officers appeared immediately in the gallery and stood alongside the front row in which the women who unfurled the banner were sitting. They did not make a sound and were not ejected.

An exchange will be given in the Davis Millinery Store Saturday morning by the members of the W. C. C.

Mrs. W. W. Laughlin of North Jackson street is quite ill.

WILSON RENEWS HIS REQUESTS

Appearing Before Congress Today, President Asks Increase in Commerce Commission

TO SETTLE RAIL DISPUTE

Recalls What he Recommended to Last Congress and What Was Done—Other Problems

By ROBERT J. BENDER
 (U. P. Staff Correspondent)
 Washington, Dec. 5.—Following the precedent he established when he first assumed his executive duties in the white house, President Wilson today appeared before a joint session of Congress and personally outlined legislation he hopes to have enacted by that body. It was the third time he has addressed the sixty-fourth Congress.

The president declared that the country "can not and should not consent to remain any longer exposed to profound industrial disturbances," and appealed for renewed action on his program of "settlement and regulation of difficulties" between the railroads and the trainmen.

Statements of the needs of such legislation occupied the bulk of his annual message—the shortest one he has delivered. It recommended passage of the provisions included but not acted upon in his last special appeal last August.

In a late addition to his message the president urged the passage by the house of the vocational and industrial educational measures passed by the senate during the last session. Because the makeup of the next House may result in hard sledding for democratic measures, the president hoped, by his appeal today, to convince this congress of the importance of immediate action on legislation he particularly desires.

The executive box in the house gallery was reserved for Mrs. Wilson and other members of the president's family. Members of the cabinet, also were there.

While congress is working on his recommendations the president will be away from Washington but little. Should it be necessary he may recommend that the customary Christmas recess be dispensed with. This suggestion has been made already by Speaker Clark and Chairman Fitzgerald of the house appropriations committee.

There is much to do before March 3, the date of adjournment, if the president's wishes are to be carried out in full at this time and not entrusted to the sixty-fifth Congress.

"In the first place," said the president, launching into the principal theme of his address at once, "it seems to me imperatively necessary that the earliest possible consideration and action should be accorded the remaining measures of the programme of settlement and regulation which I had occasion to recommend to you at the close of your last session in view of the public dangers disclosed by the unanticipated difficulties which then existed, and which still unhappily continue to exist, between the railroads of the country and their locomotive engineers, conductors, and trainmen."

I then recommended:

"First, immediate provision for the enlargement and administrative reorganization of the Interstate Commerce Commission along the lines embodied in the bill recently passed by the House of Representatives and now awaiting action by the Senate; in order that the Commission may be enabled to deal with the many great and various duties now devolving upon it with promptness and thoroughness which are, with its present constitution, rendered difficult."

"Second, the creation of a commission to regulate the railroads, which will be composed of three commissioners appointed by the president, confirmed by the Senate, and serving for six years, and which will have power to fix maximum rates of charge, to regulate the construction of railroads, and to regulate the relations between railroads and shippers."

INDICATES THAT AMERICANS ARE SAFE

(By United Press.)

El Paso, Texas, Dec. 5.—A petition to the state department to make a peremptory demand upon the Carranza government to obtain news of the fate of the six Americans and other foreigners known to have been in Chihuahua City when Villistas captured the city is being prepared here today by friends and relatives of the missing Americans.

The petition will virtually charge Mexican government officials with withholding or attempting to suppress information concerning the safety of foreigners.

The first authentic news from the Americans in Chihuahua City reached relatives today. A telegram from Charles Elmendorf, an American rumored at various times as killed said: "We are all well." By officials it was taken to mean that all Americans in Chihuahua City are safe.

Posterity's Debts

In all large public undertakings where permanent improvements were sought to be made it has become a custom to issue long-time bonds in order to secure the money with which to finance the work.

Probably nine-tenths of the counties of nine-tenths of the states of the union are bonded to a greater or less extent, and scarcely a city or town of any importance in the land but carries its bonded debt that has gone to pay for public utilities.

But in many cases the advocates of the bond issue have had hard fights to carry their projects through. One of the most serious objections has always been from the man who "doesn't believe in saddling a debt on future generations."

Now let us see about this. Suppose, for instance, our county has no railroad. For generations our ancestors, and we ourselves, have

DRINK HOT WATER IF YOU DESIRE A ROSY COMPLEXION

Says we can't help but look better and feel better after an inside bath.

To look one's best and feel one's best is to enjoy an inside bath each morning to flush from the system the previous day's waste, sour fermentations and poisonous toxins before it is absorbed into the blood. Just as coal, when it burns, leaves behind a certain amount of incombustible material in the form of ashes, so the food and drink taken each day leave in the alimentary organs a certain amount of indigestible material, which if not eliminated, form toxins and poisons which are then sucked into the blood through the very ducts which are intended to suck in only nourishment to sustain the body.

If you want to see the glow of healthy bloom in your cheeks, to see your skin get clearer and clearer, you are told to drink every morning upon arising, a glass of hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it, which is a harmless means of washing the waste material and toxins from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels, thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary tract, before putting more food into the stomach.

Men and women with sallow skins, liver spots, pimples or pallid complexion, also those who wake up with a coated tongue, bad taste, nasty breath, others who are bothered with headaches, bilious spells, acid stomach or constipation should begin this phosphated hot water drinking and are assured of very pronounced results in one or two weeks.

A quarter pound of limestone phosphate costs very little at the drug store, but is sufficient to demonstrate that just as soap and hot water cleanses, purifies and refreshes the skin on the outside, so hot water and limestone phosphate act on the inside organs. We must always consider that internal sanitation is vastly more important than outside cleanliness, because the skin pores do not absorb impurities into the blood, while the bowel pores do.

Fletcher's Shoe Shop

laboriously hauled in our supplies and hauled out our products, realizing, when all expenses were met, but a meagre pittance for our year's work.

But a railroad is projected and we are told if we will bond our county for a few hundred thousand dollars, it will be put through. This we do. Now arises the objection that we have placed a heavy debt on posterity.

Have we? Yes. But at the same time we have given posterity the means to pay that debt and then be infinitely better off than we and our fathers were.

Compare for a moment the difference in their conditions, and ours before the road was built. The average county is about twenty-five miles wide. Suppose that represented the distance to the nearest shipping point. Do you see the enormous saving we have effected for posterity in bringing the road to their doors?

Again, take the question of piles. The same reasoning will hold good there. Whereas we and our fathers toiled through mud and mire to drag fifteen or twenty bushels of grain to market, our sons can hitch up an ordinary team and take a load of two or three thousand pounds with ease and in much less time than we needed.

And so on through the list of all permanent public improvements.

But the work should be permanent, or at least as nearly permanent as our best judgment can make it. When we have builded to the best of our ability and have lain a groundwork on which our children can continue to build, we have not only benefited them, and made it possible to attain to conditions that were entirely beyond our reach.

A debt on posterity is just, provided it represents a tangible asset.

Federalized.

The State railroad and public service commissioners make a natural protest against any plan to federalize the regulation of common carriers.

Some of them are actuated by fear of losing their jobs; others have pronounced the genuine notions of states' rights which they would maintain. The Republican platform of 1916 declared for federal control of the power of regulating transportation, but it was a subject which received little attention in the campaign. Whether the party in Congress will support the proposition with unanimity may be doubted. There are, however, some court decisions already on record—one, notably, in Alabama—where the doctrine of the right of the Interstate Commerce Commission to regulate both interstate and intrastate rates has been affirmed. In the Alabama case the doctrine went all the way through to the court of last resort without reversal. It may be, therefore, that all the Interstate Commerce Commission has to do is to assume the power without waiting for Congressional action.

The man who poses as a model citizen is sometimes the biggest fake in town.

An excellent way to get rid of a grouch is to forget that you have one.

No wonder men of today are becoming stoop shouldered. The horse display keeps very male eye on a downward slant.

If the high cost of white paper interferes, love letters can be just as silly on any other color.

By keeping everlastingly at it some people eventually never get anywhere.

Muncie Woman Describes the Good Work of Tanlac—Terms it Wonderful

Muncie, Ind., Dec. 4.—Mrs. Lovinia Rickert, a well known resident of this city, who lives at 1503 A street, Whitley is one of the hundreds of friends Tanlac, the Master Medicine, has made among residents of Muncie and vicinity. Mrs. Rickert said:

"For some time I have had stomach and kidney troubles and rheumatism. I was subject to severe headaches and frequently I became dizzy. Rheumatic pains in my shoulders bothered me. My chest was sore. I had a bad taste in my mouth. Gas formed on my stomach.

"I get up in the mornings feeling rested and refreshed since taking Tanlac. My food digests properly now. The pains in my shoulders have disappeared. The work of Tanlac in my case has been wonderful."

Tanlac, the Master Medicine, is especially beneficial for stomach, liver and kidney trouble, catarrhal complaints, rheumatism, nervousness and the like and is fine for relieving the after effects of hard coughs, colds, laryngitis, pneumonia and the like. Tanlac is now sold exclusively in Rushville at F. E. Wolfe's drug store; in Arlington at Mrs. L. T. Davis'; in Carthage at J. H. McCarthy & Sons, and in Mifroy at Barton & Sheppard's.

The treasurer of Rush county had on deposit in the various banks over one-half million dollars for several days during the month of November. At one time the deposits amounted to $526,449.04. This was immediately following the close of the tax paying season on Nov. 16. It was probably the first time in the history of the county that the sum on deposit reached this large amount.

At the close of business November 30 the county had on deposit the sum of $428,229.59. During the month the sum of $98,219.46 was paid out, showing that the total deposits were over the half million mark.

The sum on hand even after paying out almost $100,000 was still large, but will be greatly reduced during this month as the settlement with the state and the distribution to the corporations and townships will come out of this large total.

The board of finance will meet on January 1 to receive proposals from the banks and trust companies on the amount of public funds they are entitled to for the next two years. The public depositories are given a per cent of the funds based on the capital stock, the surplus and the undivided profits of the banks. The amounts the banks will be entitled to for the next two years will not vary greatly from that followed at present.

The amount on deposit in the various banks and trust companies in the county at the close of business Nov. 30 was as follows:

Rush Co. National	$100,414.90
Rushville National	73,813.98
Peoples National	65,477.98

Glenwood bank	13,689.49

Total $428,229.58

IT SHOULD BE NO TROUBLE TO PICK "HER" CHRISTMAS GIFT

A Survey of Rushville Stores Reveals That Mere Man Even Could Select a Suitable Present For His Wife or Sweetheart Without Any Fuss or Confusion Because There Are so Many Suitable Things Which Would Make Her Happy—There Are Vases And Bags And Toilet Sets And Luncheon Sets And Many Other Dainty Things Too Numerous to Mention.

If this "Christmasy" figure fails to convince you that gift-giving day is quickly approaching, a mere glimpse in the down-town shops will do so. It seems that the assortment was never larger and the gifts more attractively arranged than this year. True, some of the gifts disregard the principles of the S. P. U. G. but by their daintiness they offer their own excuse.

Every idea under the sun has been worked into some new form of a Christmas present, for as usual, the buyer is seeking "something pretty and yet very different." Baskets! There are all sorts, and they are for all purposes. The newest sandwich baskets are the ones that have lids fitting tightly down, and a ring on top that serves as a handle. The French basket is neglected this year for the lovely white ivory ones for the flower pot or bouquet. Twined about them are raised pink or other daintily colored flowers. Similar baskets may be found in gold and other shades. Even the waste paper baskets are made to correspond with the white ivory or wicker furniture in the bed room.

Both the bud vases and very practical flat bowls for Japanese gardens have won their popularity for the flower loving hostess, but now they are coming in sets. The popular black ones, different shades of blue, black and white and glass are all being shown. Too, there are the cunning little birds that perch on the bowls and ornaments to float about amid the flowers. The tapering bud vases are shown in filigree silver, ivory to match the dresser or desk set and in sterling.

And for the traveler, Santa Claus

Miss Anna Geraghty entertained her twelve nieces at a theatre party last evening. After attending the "movie" the party visited the candy kitchen.

Two very interesting papers featured the meeting of the Monday Circle held with Mrs. Ralph Payne at her home in North Harrison street yesterday afternoon. Mrs. B. F. Miller, in her paper, discussed in a very inclusive way "Shakespeare's Debt to the Bible." Mrs. L. L. Allen brought out in her paper "The Greatness of Shakespeare," dealing with the many factors that make him really great. Dainty refreshments were served by the hostess. Mrs. Leroy Churchill of Buffalo, N. Y., was among the guests of Mrs. Payne.

Twenty-eight members of the W. R. C. Penny Social attended the Christmas meeting at the home of Mrs. Alfred Pearsey in East Tenth street yesterday afternoon when she was assisted in entertaining by Mrs. Minnie Moore and Mrs. Mary Wilson. With the national colors, the home was decorated. One of the cleverest features of the affair was the drawing of gifts. Each guest had brought one. The gifts were placed in a basket and a string attached to each. After the basket was covered, each guest drew a string and received the present. A two course luncheon was served late in the afternoon. During the business meeting, officers for the coming year were elected with the following result: president, Mrs. Noley Newkirk; vice-president, Mrs. Lydia Turner; treasurer, Mrs. Eva Offutt. The next meeting of the Social will be December 19th, at the home of Mrs. Mary R. Gregg when she will be assisted by Mrs. Fannie Ridenbaugh and Mrs. Selma Webb.

URGES FARMERS TO FIX PRICES

Speaker at Marketing Conference Declares They Should Have Rights of Manufacturer.

HE CITIES FRUIT GROWERS

Needs of an Association Are Shown Through Which They Would be Protected.

(By United Press.) Chicago, Ill., Dec. 5.—The farmer, like the manufacturer, should fix the price of his product, in the opinion of G. E. Prater, Jr., of Paw Paw, Mich., sales manager of the Wolverine Co-operative Company, who addressed the Conference on Marketing here today.

The Wolverine company is an association of Michigan grape growers and is said to have done much to improve conditions among the said that the fruit growers were vineyards of that state, but Prater still much at the mercy of the consignee.

"The fruit growers of Michigan are still facing the problem of continuing the old method of consigning their fruit, thereby letting the other fellow set the price, or associating themselves, either together as an association, or interesting cash buyers in their product," said the Michigan expert.

"The individual association cannot afford to maintain an efficient market organization by reason of the limited amount of business transacted and the short time its products are on the market," he continued. Hence Michigan's great need of today is a federation of all associated interests whereby there will be a selling center, from which the entire season's product of the state may be distributed, or at least provide a source of information to the buyer, where any given product may be obtained, from some dependable shipper.

"What we must have is a system that will guarantee the buyer a definite and dependable grade that will be the same whether shipped from Traverse City, Benton Harbor or points between. Then our product will have a definite commercial value on the market, and can be sold f. o. b. and traded in with confidence."

MAY DO AWAY WITH ADVISORY BOARD

Trustees at Their Annual Meeting May Recommend Legislation Abolishing These Officers.

SESSION OPENED TODAY

(By United Press.) Indianapolis, Ind., Dec. 5—Township trustees from over Indiana came here today to attend the annual convention of the Indiana Trustees association. The convention will be in session until tomorrow night. Elimination of advisory boards in the state will be the main topic of discussion.

It is understood that resolution will be introduced into the coming session of the General Assembly abolishing the advisory board system. This action, it is said, will be taken because every time the trustees need money in their work, it is necessary to take up the matter with the advisory board, causing much delay. Every township in the state has an advisory board consisting of three men.

Dr. W. F. King, assistant secretary of the state board of health, will deliver an address on the "The Duty of the Trustee to the Schools." W. D. Carter, of Delaware county, is president of the association.

Notice of Election.

On Tuesday, January 9th, 1917, a meeting of the shareholders of The Peoples Loan and Trust Company of Rushville, Indiana, will be held at their offices, between the hours of 8:00 a. m. and 4:00 p. m. to elect seven Directors to serve the ensuing year.

Mayors of Many Cities Take up Fight to Lower Prices, Especially of Coal.

MARKETS ARE SUCCESSFUL

Evansville's Mayor in Chicago to Buy Cabbage and Potatoes in Car Load Lots.

(By United Press.) Indianapolis, Ind.—With the introduction of a resolution in the Indianapolis council today by Alderman Frank Graham, asking for an investigation into the high price of foodstuffs, practically every large city in Indiana has now taken up the fight against the high cost of living.

Mayor Gossom of Terre Haute started the ball rolling with the establishment of his municipal coal mine. The Terre Haute's mayor's project has proved so successful that he has leased fifty acres of coal land, in addition to the mine now working and the market promises to be a permanent institution.

Muncie was next in line when the common council of that city appropriated $15,000 for the establishment of a municipal coal bin.

Mayor Benjamin Bosse of Evansville today is in Chicago arranging to purchase cabbage and potatoes in car load lots to be sold to Evansville consumers at cost. He has issued warning to coal dealers that if the price goes above 12 cents a bushel, he will start a municipal coal mine.

Mayor William C. Murphy and members of the common council of Crawfordsville are arranging to purchase 1,000 tons of coal which they plan to sell to consumers at $3 a ton.

It is possible that a meeting of mayors of Indiana cities may be held within a short time to devise plans on a wide scale for the establishment of municipal food and fuel markets.

IN INDIANA TODAY

Columbus—A farmers' institute was held at Hartsville today.

Bedford—Thirty-five thousand dollars left by Moses Fell Dunn in his will to be devoted to the erection of a soldiers' monument will probably be used to construct a building instead of the monument.

Evansville—Girls employed in the Evansville Cigar shops are being taken into the union, as a result of a recent visit of a national organizer, who asked a membership of women.

Huntington—School children are refraining from marking with chalk on the side walks by orders of Police Chief Baker. The order came as a result of complaints lodged by residents here.

The soothing healing pine balms relieve the irritation and stop the cough and the antiseptic qualities kill the germ. Have it handy for gripe croup and all winter colds. SAGE TEA TURNS GRAY HAIR DARK

It's Grandmother's Recipe to Bring Back Color and Lustre to Hair.

That beautiful, even shade of dark, glossy hair can only be had by brewing a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray or streaked, just an application or two of Sage and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundredfold.

Don't bother to prepare the mixture; you can get this famous old recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients for 50 cents a large bottle, all ready for use. It is called Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound. This can always be depended upon to bring back the natural color and lustre of your hair.

Everybody uses "Wyeth's" Sage and Sulphur Compound now because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair has disappeared, and after another application it becomes beautifully dark and appears glossy and lustrous. This ready-to-use preparation is a delightful toilet requisite for those who desire dark hair and a youthful appearance. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

Youthful Friendship.

Although many people smile cynically when platonic friendship is mentioned, I, for one, believe there is a true form of it among young people. As far back as I can remember I have enjoyed the friendship of boy companions and this friendship has always been purely impersonal.

As a little child I played with my brother George's friends. We would have plays, Indian raids, cowboy games, and every other sort of amusement which children love so well. Of course I was always the squaw, cowgirl, wife, dancer at the circus, or some other rather tame thing. For the little fellows didn't believe me quite capable of straddling clothes horses, climbing trees and running from the enemy.

As I grew older these same wholesome comrades shared my joys and sorrows. Always my champions, no other boy in the school-yard ever dared tease me. How well I remember one day that I went to school with a new dark red dress. The "bad boy" of the class told me that the bull I had to pass in the fields on my way home would surely spot that dress and go after me. I couldn't attend to my studies, I was so worried; and by the time recess came round I was in tears. My brother's particular chum, Harry, noticed my tear-filled eyes as I passed him in the yard, and he asked me to come over a minute. Before I knew it I was crying hysterically, and as much as I dislike being a tattle tale, I told him the whole story.

He reassured me, telling me he would take me home another way; and it was not long before a fist fight between two boys ensued in which Harry was victor.

Thus, friends, it has been the same way all through my life. To this day the boys come and spend a quiet evening with mother and me, even when George is away from home at military school. They never think of me as their "sweetheart," and a beau remains as far from my thoughts as ever.

Encourage youthful friendships, dear friends. A boy's comradeship that has not lapsed into a sentimental mood is one of the most priceless and admirable things one can desire. It is a privilege worth owning.
